South Plains College Improves Each Student's Life

I. GENERAL COURSE INFORMATION:

- A. COURSE DESCRIPTION: ENGL 1301 (3:3:0) Composition I. This course includes a grammar review and a study of the principles of good writing, methods of paragraph and theme development, frequent essays, and collateral readings in literature and the other humanities.
- B. GOAL OF THE COURSE: The goal of this course is to help students understand and apply the standards of correctness in formal thought and the written English language. English 1301 will help students to think clearly by teaching them to write effectively through its focus on the writing process, on the use of appropriate grammar and diction, on the use of logic, and on the different methods of essay development. Students will also learn to read, and think, more critically.

II. SPECIFIC COURSE/INSTRUCTOR REQUIREMENTS:

- A. TEXT: College Writing Skills with Readings, 9th ed. By John Langan
 - ✓ Access code to McGraw- Hill Connect
 - ✓ ENGL 1301 Course Packet (Fly)
 - ✓ Scantrons! (blue, DataLink 1200)
- B. COURSE ATTENDANCE: "Punctual and regular class attendance is required of all students attending South Plains College. There are no excused absences. Students are responsible for all classwork covered during absences. Any student who misses four consecutive days will be dropped from the class. Anytime absences become excessive, and, in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met, students may be dropped." (SPC General Catalog) However, students whose absenteeism becomes excessive should not count on the instructor to initiate the drop process. Three (3) tardies equal one absence. Tardies may be counted as absences if they are prolonged or excessive. Since extensive class time is devoted to in-class assignments, students not working on class assignments may be counted absent.
- C. ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: The guidelines for academic integrity set forth in the current South Plains College catalog will be followed, but perhaps one specific category should be addressed here: plagiarism and cheating. According to the SPC catalog, "Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers." Failure to comply with this policy will result in a zero (0) for the assignment and can result in an "F" for the course if circumstances warrant.

Except in extreme cases, disciplinary action in cases of cheating or plagiarism will be handled by and at the discretion of the instructor and, if necessary, in consultation with the departmental chairperson. Depending on the nature and the severity of the problem, individual instructors may assign penalties from zero for the assignment to an "F" in the course. Extreme cases may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from South Plains College.

- D. GRADING STANDARDS: Individual assignments have specific grading criteria, but this list outlines the basic grading standards.
 - On topic. All papers must clearly follow the assigned topic. Paper which are off topic receive no credit (0).
 - Mechanics. All assignments should follow the conventions of standard, written English, with emphases on grammar, spelling, punctuation and capitalization
 - Structure. All papers should follow basic essay structure with an effective thesis, appropriate topic sentences, specific details and a short conclusion.
 - Content. Papers are evaluated on how effectively ideas are communicated.
- D. GRADING POLICY: Final course grades will be calculated using the following percentages:

•	5 Essays @ 10% each	50%
•	The work book	20%
•	10 Daily grades @ 1% each	10%
•	The mid-term exam	10%
•	Final Exam	10%

E. GRADING SCALE:

100-90=A Superior 89-80=B Good 79-70=C Average 69-60=D Poor below 60=F Unacceptable

progress/repeat = PR (The PR grade will reflect satisfactory attendance, class participation, attitude, and effort throughout the semester. Effort in the class is considered to be completion of each assignment and documented use of on-going assistance from the instructor and the Student Assistance Center. Absences cannot exceed the equivalent of one week of class.)

- F. ASSIGNMENTS/MAKE-UP TEST POLICY: All writing assignments must be completed and turned in no later than the assigned due date.
 - Major tests should be made up as soon as reasonably possible.
 - Daily grades cannot be made up.
 - Late essays are not accepted. (LWINA)

G. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

- 1. Attend class and be aware of announcements made in class.
- 2. Inform instructor of late arrival immediately after class.
- 3. Complete homework early enough to seek help if needed.
- 4. Be familiar with information in the syllabus, especially attendance, grading, and test policies.
- 5. Take care of personal needs before and after class.
- 6. Keep all electronic devices (iPods, cell phones, etc.) in 'mute' or 'off' mode, and out of sight. TEXTING DURING CLASS IS ESPECIALLY PROHIBITED.
- 7. Students are expected to assist in maintaining a classroom environment which is conducive to learning. Inappropriate behavior, including but not limited to any form of distracting or offensive attire or behavior in the classroom shall result in being dropped from the class.
- 8. All written assignments must clearly follow the assigned topic.

H. ADA STATEMENT: "Students with disabilities, including but not limited to physical, psychiatric or learning disabilities, who wish to request accommodations in this class should notify the Special Services Office early in the semester so that the appropriate arrangements may be made. In accordance with federal law, a student requesting accommodations must provide acceptable documentation of his/her disability to the Special Services Coordinator. For more information, visit the Special Services Office in Bldg 8, or call 885-3048, ext. 4675."

III. COURSE OBJECTIVES

By the end of English 1301, the student should have written a minimum of five, 500-word essays that reflect the ability:

- ✓ To understand writing as a process: that is, writing conceived as a connected and interactive process which includes pre-writing, writing and revision;
- ✓ To apply the principles of writing as a process and the analysis of audience and purpose to writing assignments;
- ✓ To write an essay that follows the principles of unity and coherence and that is appropriately developed to prove a thesis by means of narration, description, illustration, definition, process analysis, cause and effect, comparison / contrast, classification and division, argumentation, and / or persuasion;
- ✓ To write an essay which follows the conventions of standard written English, the criteria for standard written English being those described in the current required handbook;
- ✓ To understand and apply basic principles of critical thinking in the development of exposition and argument.

Core Objectives addressed:

- Communications skills—to include effective written, oral and visual communication
- Critical thinking skills—to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation and synthesis of information
- Teamwork—to include the ability to consider different points of view and to work effectively with others to support a shared purpose or goal
- Personal Responsibility—to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

THE WORKBOOK 4.5

All workbook entries must follow these guidelines:

- ♦ All entries should be double-spaced, using a 12-point, Times New Roman font with standard 1 inch margins.
- ♦ Each entry should begin with a heading that includes your name and class.
- ♦ Points will be deducted for improper formatting (max. 10).
- ♦ Workbook entries must contain a minimum of 350 words and a maximum of 800 words.

JOURNALS:

- ♦ All journal entries should have a distinct introduction, with the thesis underlined, separate body paragraphs and a short conclusion.
- ♦ All journal entries must follow one of the assigned topics, and submitted in the order they are assigned.
- ♦ Be sure that each entry is numbered correctly.
- ♦ All journal entries must have a heading in the upper left-hand corner:

Fly, Joseph English 1301-200 July 6th, 2016

◆ All journal entries should have a number as a part of the original title. For example: Journal Entry # 1: My Super Power (Don't use the topic as the title!)

GRADING:

You must submit at least 1,000 words to make an 'F.' Anything less than 1,000 words will receive a zero (no credit). Submissions between 1,000 and 3,000 will receive an 'F'.

Workbooks in the 3,000 - 4,000 range will receive a 'D', 4,001 - 5,000 = 'C',

$$5,001 - 6,000 =$$
