Department: Social Sciences

Discipline: History

Course Number: HISTORY 2381

Course Title: African American History I

Credit: 3 Lecture, 0 Lab

Foundational Component Area of Core Curriculum: American History

Prerequisites: TSI compliance in Reading

Available Formats: Conventional, INET, ITV Campus: Levelland, Reese, ATC, Plainview

Textbook: Varies according to instructor.

Course Specific Instructions: Each instructor will attach his/her course with specific instructions.

Course Description: This course is a survey of the social, political, economic, cultural and intellectual history of people of African descent in the formation and development of the United States to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. African American History to 1877 includes the study of African origins and legacy, trans-Atlantic slave trade and the experiences of African Americans during the Colonial, Revolutionary, Early National, Antebellum, and the Civil War/Reconstruction Era. This course presents African American history as an integral part of U.S. History.

Course Objectives:

1. critical thinking: demonstrates creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
2. communication: demonstrates effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.
3. social responsibility: demonstrates intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
4. personal responsibility: demonstrates the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Course Purpose: To acquaint students with the diversity of American history and to promote critical thinking in interrelating the past to the present. Fundamentally, the course promotes general understanding of a body of knowledge any student knows.

Course Requirements: To maximize a student's potential to complete this course, they should attend all class meetings, complete all homework assignments and examinations in a timely manner, and complete all other projects or papers as assigned in the instructor's specific instructions.

Course Evaluation: See the instructor's course information sheet for specific items used in evaluating student performance.

Attendance Policy: Whenever absences become excessive and in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met due to absences, the student will be withdrawn from the course. Each instructor will have additional information about attendance on his/her course information sheet.

Learning Outcomes: Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students should demonstrate familiarity with the pre-Columbian era to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. This would include the following themes:

- Identify the Ancient civilizations of Africa.
- Identify the major western Sudanese empires and the forest civilizations of the Guinea coast.
- Describe West African society and culture prior to European contact.
- Examine the European Age of Exploration and Colonization.
- Discuss the origins and development of the Atlantic Slave trade.
- Describe the origins of American slavery.
- Examine 18th century slavery in the Chesapeake colonies, the Northern colonies and the southern colonies.
- Identify the effects of the American Revolution on Africans in America.
- Discuss the emergence of Free Black communities.
- Compare and Contrast slave labor on tobacco, rice, sugar, and cotton plantations.
- Describe the major features of the Domestic slave trade.
- Examine the rise of African American institutions.
- Analyze the role Black and White Abolitionists played in the struggle toward emancipation.
- Identify the major causes and events of the Civil War.
- Examine the Emancipation Proclamation and African American participation in the Civil War.
- Evaluate American attempts to Reconstruct the nation after the Civil War.

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
- Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of United States history.

This is an online course; consistent access to the internet and to a computer is required for this class. If you have computer problems or internet issues, you may use a computer at one of the computer labs on any SPC campus. I do not accept interrupted computer service or lack of a computer as an excuse for late work in online classes.

Grading of Course work:

Essay on Slave Narratives of the Underground Railroad	10%
Exam Essays	40%
Discussions/Participation	50%

Primary Document Essay (10% of your grade)

A prompt for the essay over the book Slave Narratives of the Underground Railroad is available in the Weekly Assignments folder in Blackboard. This is a formal 3 – 5-page essay and should conform to MLA standards.

Exams (40% of your grade)

There will be 4 Exam essays approximately four weeks apart. Each exam will cover materials for those weeks. For example, the first exam will cover weeks 1 – 4 and the final exam will cover week 13 – 15. This will include assigned readings, discussion questions, and videos. The essays are not timed and can be completed in advance, however, there will be no essays accepted after the due date. These essays will connect specific information from the readings with the broader themes of the course. All essays for this class are formal, persuasive essays. They should conform to MLA format. We will talk about this one day in class. Please review the rubric and the sample paper posted in Course Documents. Do not use outside sources; the assigned readings will be all that you need to complete the essays.

Weekly Discussions (50% of your grade)

Each chapter in assigned texts may have a corresponding quiz and/or writing assignments in Blackboard. Complete each assignment as you finish the readings. Please note: no assignment will count after its due date.

Important Dates and Deadlines

Discussions	Each Thursday by 11 pm in Blackboard.
Exam Essays	Weeks 4, 8, 12, and 16.
Essay over Slave Narratives	Week 14.

Course Rules

Late Assignments: Please let me know before the due date and time, if there is a problem completing the assignment on time. There may be a 5-point penalty for each day an assignment is late after the original due date.

Feedback: I will reply to all messages or emails within 24 hours during the week. I will grade your short essays in one week. I will grade exams within two weeks. I typically grade Discussion Board posts in 1 week. I will not respond to every discussion post, rather, I might add something or emphasize a point made in the post. Sometimes I ask for clarification if I am unsure what the poster was trying to share.

Discussion Boards: Most of your weekly assignments will use the Discussion Board in Blackboard. Those will be indicated by date and appear in the weekly folder for the week they are due. During the semester, I will also post links in the Discussion Board to address any questions you might have about the Syllabus. Please post any question you might have on the Discussion Board. Please do not hesitate to email me or message me through Blackboard with any issues of a more personal nature or if the discussions do not fully answer your questions. I check my messages and emails for the last time each weekday before 5 pm; please do not expect an answer after 9pm, on the weekends or during holidays, or while I am in a class.

Netiquette: Netiquette is the etiquette used online. Remember, every poster on Blackboard is a living, breathing human being. It should be a positive exchange of ideas. Remember to treat people with the same respect as you would in person. Please don't use ALL CAPS; this is the same as yelling. Simply put – be polite.

Blackboard Messages: The best way to contact me is through Blackboard Messages. Messages are private, and all correspondence about the course should go through Messages. Please only use my email if Blackboard is unavailable. Do not send assignments through email; I will not accept any assignment through email.

Plagiarism will not be tolerated: I consider academic dishonesty (cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, interference with another student's work) to be serious misconduct. Anything that is plagiarized will receive an automatic Zero (0) and possible expulsion from the course or disciplinary action through the school. Simply stated, plagiarism is claiming another author's work as your own; it is theft. If you quote or use another author's work, you must cite that author. You can find information about proper citation here: <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/information-for/current-spc-students/library/cslibrary/vl/plagiarism.php> If you are unsure what constitutes plagiarism, please email or meet with me as soon as possible.

Other concerns: I strongly encourage you to meet with me, meet on Collaborate, or email to discuss any circumstances that might affect your performance in this class. I cannot assist you if I do not know you have a problem.
